

There's nothing lazy about LazyTown

7th April 2016

Children's TV show LazyTown comes to the Carnegie Theatre in Workington on June 18

Share  0 Comments

There will be plenty of action at the Carnegie Theatre as children's show LazyTown Live on Stage comes to Workington.

Celebrating its first decade in the UK with a nationwide tour, the non-stop, interactive show promises singing, dancing, spectacular acrobatics, music and fun, encouraging children to lead healthy, active lifestyles.

"Meanwhile, Sportacus will be at his athletic, super-active best - running, jumping and flipping to save the day."

LazyTown mixes music, movement and humour to engage, entertain and motivate its audience.

Nick said: "Youngsters are encouraged to play, move, dance and sing - and feel really good about it.

"LazyTown may have the laziest name on television, but it's jam-packed with action, energy and a powerful message that tells children they can do it."

Featuring well-known songs from the TV show, including No One's Lazy in LazyTown, Bing Bang, Never Say Never, Master of Disguise, Welcome to LazyTown and Time to Play, the show will introduce the benefits of "sports candy" (apples and other fruit and vegetables) in inspirational style for ages three and above.

LazyTown first aired in the UK in 2005 and can currently be seen on Turner's Boomerang and Cartoonito, and Channel 5's Milkshake.

The show comes to the Carnegie Theatre in Workington on June 18 at 2pm.

Tickets are £12 for adults and £10 for children and are available at www.carnegietheatre.co.uk or on 01900 602122.