

Liven up - Lazy Town gets active at The Brewhouse

12th April 2016

The LazyTown gang

By James Hastings

Share  0 Comments

PARENTS forced to watch Saturday morning TV with their children will know it usually involves a glass of orange juice and a Jaffa cake.

The plus side is, it often includes a wonderful, magnificent and hilarious show called LazyTown.

Now the hit show is on tour with a brand new stage production.

All your favourites characters - the kids love them too - including Sportacus, Robbie Rotten, Stephanie and Ziggy will be there.

LazyTown is a non-stop, highly-interactive and energetic treat, jam-packed with singing, dancing, spectacular acrobatics, music and fun.

The show mixes music, movement and humour aiming to engage, entertain and motivate children to make healthier choices in their everyday lives.

LazyTown, Bing Bang, Never Say Never, Master of Disguise, Welcome to LazyTown and Time to Play, and introducing the benefits of “sports candy” (apples and a variety of other fruit and vegetables) in inspirational style.

Don't be lazy, get your tickets early to avoid disappointment - and don't forget the Jaffa cakes.

Thursday, August 4 – 1.30pm & 4.00pm. The Brewhouse Theatre.