

See LazyTown Live at Liverpool Empire this summer for £12

LazyTown Live on Stage comes to the Liverpool Empire on August 12

By Jonathan Yates

17:55, 26 JUL 2016 | UPDATED 09:29, 27 JUL 2016

Bookmark

LazyTown Live on Stage, the interactive version of the hit TV show comes to Liverpool Empire over the summer holidays.

The highly energetic show follows the adventures of Stephanie, an optimistic young girl with bright pink hair, who lives in LazyTown - a place full of interesting characters.

This Groupon deal offers tickets at £12 for Friday 12 August at 4:30pm but there is limited availability for this audience participation show.

All the family are promised a fun, jam-packed show of singing, dancing and acrobatics including fan favourite tracks from the TV series.

There is also the opportunity for kids to get on stage and learn how to be a super hero with characters Sportacus, Ziggy and show villain Robbie Rotten.

You can expect the same laughs and learnings from this popular TV show which promotes healthy eating and exercise to young kids.

Standard tickets cost £16.65 so with this offer you will be saving 28%, book now through Groupon and ATG Tickets here .