
By Kyle O'Sullivan, Assistant Features Editor

21:57, 27 Jan 2018

| BOOKMARK

Take Me Out viewers were left in fits of giggles tonight at Elvis fan with a familiar looking appearance.

Ryan from Leicester was trying to get a date with one of the Flirty Thirty to Fernando's - but viewers thought he looked almost identical to a Lazy Town character.

The guitar-playing rocker, who is part of a 50s and 60s cover band, is a dead ringer for Stingy from the hit kids show.

Ryan managed to bag himself a date after winning over one girl with his skills with the guitar, but viewers were convinced he was actually a cartoon character.

Take Me Out contestant Ryan looks a lot like a Lazy Town character

(Image: ITV)

The resemblance to Stingy is uncanny

Take Me Out viewers were left in hysterics and took to Twitter after Ryan appeared on the show as the resemblance to Stingy is uncanny.

One viewer said: "Why does that guy on take me out look like stingy from lazy town"